

INSTRUCTION

Parent Involvement

San Joaquin County Office of Education Strategies for Title I Schools

To ensure that parents/guardians and family members of students participating in Title I programs are provided with opportunities to be involved in their children's education, the San Joaquin County Office of Education (SJCOE) shall:

1. Involve parents/guardians and family members in the joint development of an SJCOE plan that meets the requirements of 20 USC 6312 and the development of school support and improvement plans pursuant to 20 USC 6311.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. In accordance with Education Code Section 52063, establish a parent advisory committee for SJCOE school/programs and, as applicable, an English learner parent advisory committee to review and comment on the SJCOE school/program's local control and accountability plan (LCAP) in accordance with the review schedule established by the school/program's Governing Board;
 - b. Invite input on the plan from other SJCOE committees and school site councils;
 - c. Communicate with parents/guardians through SJCOE newsletters, websites, or other methods regarding the plan and the opportunity to provide input;
 - d. Provide copies of working drafts of the plan to parents/guardians in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents/guardians can understand;
 - e. Ensure that there is an opportunity at a public Board meeting for public comment on the plan prior to the County Board of Education's approval of the plan or revisions to the plan; and
 - f. Ensure that school-level policies on parent/guardian and family engagement address the role of school site councils and other parents/guardians as appropriate in the development and review of school plans.
2. Provide coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity of Title I schools in planning and implementing effective parent/guardian and family engagement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employers, business leaders and philanthropic organizations or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents/guardians and family members in education.

The Superintendent or designee shall:

- a. Assist SJCOE personnel to serve as a liaison to the SJCOE schools/programs regarding Title I parent/guardian and family engagement issues;
 - b. Identify funding and other resources, including community resources and services, that may be used to strengthen SJCOE school/program and school parent/guardian and family engagement programs;
 - c. Provide training for the program administrator or designee of each participating school/program regarding Title I requirements for parent/guardian and family engagement, leadership strategies, and communication skills to assist in facilitating the planning and implementation of related activities;
 - d. With the assistance of parents/guardians, provide information and training to teachers and other staff regarding effective parent/guardian involvement practices and legal requirements; and
 - e. Provide information to schools/programs about the indicators and assessment tools that will be used to monitor student progress.
3. To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate Title I parent/guardian and family engagement strategies with parent/guardian and family engagement strategies of other relevant federal, state, and local programs and ensure consistency with federal, state, and local laws.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Identify overlapping or similar program requirements;
 - b. Involve SJCOE and school site representatives from other programs to assist in identifying specific population needs;
 - c. Schedule joint meetings with representatives from related programs and share data and information across programs; and
 - d. Develop a cohesive, coordinated plan focused on student needs and shared goals.
4. Conduct, with meaningful involvement of parents/guardians and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent/guardian and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of the schools served by Title I, including identification of:
- a. Barriers to greater participation in parent/guardian and family engagement activities, with particular attention to parents/guardians who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background;
 - b. The needs of parents/guardians and family members, so they can better assist with their children's learning and engage with school personnel and teachers; and
 - c. Strategies to support successful school and family interactions.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Use a variety of methods, such as focus groups, surveys, and workshops, to evaluate the satisfaction of parents/guardians and staff with the quality and frequency of SJCOE communications;
- b. Gather and monitor data regarding the number of parents/guardians and family members participating in SJCOE activities and the types of activities in which they are engaged; and
- c. Recommend measures to evaluate the impact of the SJCOE's parent/guardian and family engagement efforts on student achievement.

The Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians of this review and assessment through regular school communications mechanisms and shall provide a copy of the assessment to parents/guardians upon their request.

5. Using the findings of the evaluation conducted pursuant to item #4 above to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parent/guardian and family involvement, and if necessary, to revise the family/parent engagement policy.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Analyze data from the evaluation to identify parent/guardian and family engagement activities that have been successful and those activities that have had lower participation or less meaningful involvement by parents/guardians;
 - b. Analyze parent/guardian and family participation to determine the level of participation by traditionally underrepresented groups; and
 - c. With the involvement of parents/guardians, recommend and draft proposed policy revisions for consideration.
6. Involve parents/guardians in the activities of schools/programs served by Title I, which may include establishing a parent advisory board comprised of a sufficient number and representative group of parents/guardians or family members served by the SJCOE schools/programs to adequately represent the needs of the population served by the SJCOE schools/programs for the purposes of developing, revising, and reviewing the parent/guardian and family engagement policy.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Include information about school/program activities in SJCOE communications to parents/guardians and family members;
- b. To the extent practicable, assist schools/programs with translation services or other accommodations needed to encourage participation of parents/guardians and family members; and

- c. Establish processes to encourage parent/guardian input regarding their expectations and concerns for their children.

In addition, the SJCOE shall promote the effective involvement of parents/guardians and support a partnership among the schools/programs, parents/guardians, and the community to improve student achievement by implementing the actions specified in item #7 in the section “School-Level Policies for Title I Schools” below. ’

School-Level Policies for Title I Schools

At each school receiving Title I funds, a written policy on parent/guardian and family engagement shall be developed jointly with the parents/guardians and family members of participating students. The SJCOE policy shall describe the means by which the school/program will:

1. Convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents/guardians of participating students shall be invited and encouraged to attend, in order to inform parents/guardians of their school’s/program’s participation in Title I and to explain Title I requirements and the right of parents/guardians to be involved.
2. Offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, for which related transportation, child care, and/or home visits may be provided as such services relate to parent/guardian involvement.
3. Involve parents/guardians in an organized, ongoing, and timely way in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school’s/program’s parent/guardian and family engagement policy and, if applicable, the joint development of the plan for schoolwide programs pursuant to 20 USC 6314.

The school may use an existing process for involving parents/guardians in the joint planning and design of the school’s programs provided that the process includes adequate representation of parents/guardians of participating students.

4. Provide the parents/guardians of participating students all of the following:
 - a. Timely information about Title I programs;
 - b. A description and explanation of the school’s/program’s curriculum, forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the state academic standards; and
 - c. If requested by parents/guardians, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions related to their children’s education. The SJCOE shall respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.

5. If the schoolwide program plan is not satisfactory to the parents/guardians of participating students, submit any parent/guardian comments when the school makes the plan available to SJCOE.
6. Jointly develop with the parents/guardians of participating students a school-parent compact that outlines how parents/guardians, the entire school staff, and students will share responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents/guardians will build a partnership to help students achieve state standards.

This compact shall address:

- a. The school's/program's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables participating students to achieve the state's challenging academic achievement standards;
 - b. Ways in which parents/guardians will be responsible for supporting their children's learning, volunteering in the classroom, and participating, as appropriate, in decisions related to their children's education and the positive use of extracurricular time; and
 - c. The importance of communication between teachers and parents/guardians on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum:
 - (1) Parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed as it relates to the student's achievement;
 - (2) Frequent reports to parents/guardians on their children's progress;
 - (3) Reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's classroom, and observation of classroom activities; and
 - (4) Regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.
7. Promote the effective involvement of parents/guardians and support a partnership among the school, parents/guardians, and the community to improve student achievement through the following actions:
 - a. Assist parents/guardians in understanding such topics as the state academic standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of Title I, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children;
 - b. Provide parents/guardians with materials and training, such as literacy training and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy), as appropriate, to help them work with their children to improve their children's achievement;
 - c. With the assistance of parents/guardians, educate teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals and other school leaders, and other staff, in the value and utility of parent/guardian contributions and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents/guardians as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent/guardian programs, and build ties between parents/guardians and the schools;

- d. To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent/guardian involvement programs and activities with other federal, state, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents/guardians in fully participating in their children's education;
- e. Ensure that information related to school and parent/guardian programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to the parents/guardians of participating students in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents/guardians can understand; and
- f. Provide other such reasonable support for parent/guardian involvement activities as parents/guardians may request.

In addition, the school plan may include strategies to:

- a. Involve parents/guardians in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of such training;
- b. Provide necessary literacy training, using Title I funds if the SJCOE has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for such training;
- c. Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parent/guardian involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents/guardians to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions;
- d. Train parents/guardians to enhance the involvement of other parents/guardians;
- e. Arrange school meetings at a variety of times or, when parents/guardians are unable to attend such conferences, conduct in-home conferences between parents/guardians and teachers or other educators who work directly with participating students, in order to maximize parent/guardian involvement and participation;
- f. Adopt and implement model approaches to improving parent/guardian involvement;
- g. Establish a parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parent/guardian involvement in Title I programs;
- h. Develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses in parent/guardian involvement activities;
- i. Make referrals to community agencies and organizations that offer literacy training, parent/guardian education programs, and/or other services that help to improve the conditions of parents/guardians and families;
- j. Provide a master calendar of SJCOE school/program activities and meetings;
- k. Provide information about opportunities for parent/guardian and family engagement through the SJCOE school's/program's newsletter, website, or other written or electronic means;
- l. Engage parent-teacher organizations to actively seek out and involve parents/guardians through regular communication updates and information sessions;
- m. To the extent practicable, provide translation services at school sites and at meetings involving parents/guardians and family members as needed;
- n. Provide training and information to members of SJCOE and school site councils and advisory committees to help them fulfill their functions;

- o. Provide ongoing workshops to assist school site staff, parents/guardians, and family members in planning and implementing improvement strategies, and seek their input in developing the workshops;
 - p. Regularly evaluate the effectiveness of staff development activities related to parent/guardian and family engagement; and
 - q. Include expectations for parent/guardian outreach and involvement in staff job descriptions and evaluations.
8. To the extent practicable, provide opportunities for the informed participation of parents/guardians and family members (including parents/guardians and family members with limited English proficiency, parents/guardians and family members with disabilities, and parents/guardians and family members of migrant children), including providing information and school reports required under 20 USC 6311(h) in a format and language such parents/guardians can understand.

If the school has a parent involvement policy that applies to all parents/guardians, it may amend that policy to meet the above requirements.

Each school receiving Title I funds shall annually evaluate the effectiveness of its parent/guardian and family engagement policy. Such evaluation may be conducted during the process of reviewing the school plan for student achievement in accordance with Education Code Section 64001.

The school's policy shall be periodically updated to meet the changing needs of parents/guardians and the school.

San Joaquin County Office of Education Strategies for Non-Title I Schools

For each school that does not receive federal Title I funds, the Superintendent or designee shall, at a minimum:

1. Engage parents/guardians and family members positively in their children's education by providing assistance and training on topics such as state academic standards and assessments to increase their knowledge and skills to use at home to support their children's academic efforts at school and their children's development as responsible members of society.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Provide or make referrals to literacy training and/or parent education programs designed to improve the skills of parents/guardians and enhance their ability to support their children's education;
- b. Provide information, in parent handbooks and through other appropriate means, regarding academic expectations and resources to assist with the subject matter; and

- c. Provide parents/guardians with information about students' class assignments and homework assignments.
2. Inform parents/guardians that they can directly affect the success of their children's learning, by providing them with techniques and strategies that they may use to improve their children's academic success and to assist their children in learning at home.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Provide parents/guardians with information regarding ways to create an effective study environment for their children at home and to encourage good study habits;
 - b. Encourage parents/guardians to monitor their children's school attendance, homework completion, and television viewing; and
 - c. Encourage parents/guardians to volunteer in their child's classroom and to participate in school advisory committees.
3. Build consistent and effective two-way communication between the home and school so that parents/guardians and family members may know when and how to assist their children in support of classroom learning activities.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Ensure that teachers provide frequent reports to parents/guardians on their children's progress and hold parent-teacher conferences at least once per year with parents/guardians of elementary school students;
 - b. Provide opportunities for parents/guardians to observe classroom activities and to volunteer in their child's classroom;
 - c. Provide information about parent/guardian and family engagement opportunities through SJCOE, school, and/or class newsletters, the SJCOE's web site, and other written or electronic communications;
 - d. To the extent practicable, provide notices and information to parents/guardians in a format and language they can understand;
 - e. Develop mechanisms to encourage parent/guardian input on SJCOE and school issues;
 - f. Identify barriers to parent/guardian and family participation in school activities, including parents/guardians who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background; and
 - g. Encourage greater parent/guardian participation by adjusting meeting schedules to accommodate parent/guardian needs and, to the extent practicable, by providing translation or interpreter services, transportation, and/or childcare.
4. Train teachers, administrators, specialized instructional support personnel, and other staff to communicate effectively with parents/guardians as equal partners.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Provide staff development to assist staff in strengthening two-way communications with parents/guardians, including parents/guardians who have limited English proficiency or limited literacy; and
 - b. Invite input from parents/guardians regarding the content of staff development activities pertaining to home-school communications.
5. Integrate and coordinate parent/guardian and family engagement activities with the LCAP with other activities.

The Superintendent or designee may:

- a. Include parent/guardian and family engagement strategies in school reform or school improvement initiatives; and
- b. Involve parents/guardians and family members in school planning processes.

(10/17)